WEEKLY REHEARSALS

WEDNESDAYS 6:00 - 7:15 PM

+ OPPORTUNITIES TO PERFORM

Youth choristers receive vocal and music theory instruction, learning how to sing chorally. The aim is to perform from a classical foundation in a variety of musical styles for the local community, while building friendships with other choristers and growing artistically as an ensemble.

FALL SEMESTER INCLUDES HOLIDAY EVENTS!

Performances will be held at the Music Conservatory and by invitation from other community organizations. A full semester commitment is required.

Director, Emily Sana

DISCOVER THE JOY OF CHORAL SINGING WHILE MAKING GREAT FRIENDSHIPS

Grow in vocal ability, musicianship, and ensemble performance skills. All participants in this semester-long program receive theory instruction, local performance opportunities, and exposure to great classical vocal repertoire.

CLASS FEE: $ 240 FOR 12 WEEKS
